Bethany LeSueur

A six-year starter at guard for Garden City High School, Bethany led her team to three state final fours, three Long Island Championships, three Nassau County Championships, and six Conference Championships. Bethany was twice named Gatorade Player of the Year for New York as well as Miss New York Basketball. She was a Street & Smith All-American as well as a USA Today All-American. Bethany holds the Long Island scoring record with 3,167 points and played in the Nike-WBCA High School All-America game. Bethany was a three-sport athlete at Garden City where she also competed for the lacrosse and soccer teams. She was named First Team All-State in soccer and was All-County twice. Bethany was a 3-year starter at Georgetown University as well as a two-year team captain. In three years for the Hoyas, she is one of only seven players in Georgetown history to record over 800 points, 200 assists and 400 rebounds! She also received honors such as Defensive Player of the Year for the Hoyas and the Patricia E. Corace Hustle Award. Bethany was in the top ten in steals in the Big East her junior and senior seasons. Bethany was also in the top 3 in over 5 categories for the Hoyas.

Meghan Moran-O'Neill

Meghan Moran-O'Neill has been involved with Rising Stars as a coach and trainer since the inception of the girls program. As the head coach at Kellenberg, Meghan was three-time Catholic League Coach of the Year and in 2009 was named Nassau County Coach of the Year by both Newsday and the Nassau County Sports Commission. As a player, Meghan is best known for her play at Sacred Heart High School and Adelphi University where she racked up very impressive stats and honors. At Adelphi, she was a 4-year starter, All-NYCAC player and scored over 1,000 points in her career. Meghan currently serves as an elementary school teacher in the Uniondale School District.

Suzanne Collins-Kenney

Suzanne Collins-Kenney brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the Rising Stars girls program, serving as both a coach and trainer. Suzanne played her high school basketball at Manhasset High School where she was a 1,000-point scorer, All-Long Island, and Honorable Mention All-American. She continued her basketball career as captain of the St. John's women's basketball team where she was selected to the All-Big East team. Suzanne was selected as Coach of the Year when she served as head coach at Manhasset High School. Suzanne is currently a middle school teacher in the West Hempstead School District.

MaryBeth Collins-Kane

MaryBeth Collins-Kane continues to be an invaluable asset to Rising Stars. Like her sister Suzanne, MaryBeth played her high school basketball at Manhasset before moving on to play collegiately at Division I Lehigh University. As a coach, MaryBeth is the former varsity head coach at East Meadow High School and director of the St. Mary's intramural program. Marybeth currently serves as a high school teacher in the East Meadow School District.

Emma O'Connor

Emma graduated from Kellenberg High School where she was named the Nassau County Player of the Year following her senior season, and was named to the All-Long Island First Team. Emma was selected to Newsday's All-Long Island Team as a junior, as well as to the All-Star Team at the New York State Federation Basketball Tournament. Emma went on to play Division I basketball at Marist College where she was named All-MAAC Tournament Team, All-MAAC First Team, and MAAC Player of the Week on numerous occasions.
